

THE KINSLEY GRAPHIC.

"A TIME LIKE THIS DEMANDS STRONG MINDS, GREAT HEARTS, TRUE FAITH AND READY HANDS."

VOL. XXVIII. No. 35.

KINSLEY, EDWARDS COUNTY, KANSAS. JULY 22, 1904.

J. M. LEWIS, JR.

Answer Filed to Divorce Suit.

Mrs. Dan Lance has filed her answer to her husband's suit for divorce and Judge Lobdell has issued the following order:

"That the plaintiff shall, within ten days from the 18th of July, pay to A. C. Dyer, the defendant's attorney, the sum of fifty dollars to pay for the preparation of her defense and that Mr. Lance pay his wife fifteen dollars per month as temporary alimony pending the final determination of this suit, said payments to be made on the first day of each month."

This divorce suit is the beginning of another chapter in the marital disturbances in this family. Mrs. Lance ran away from her home with Tom Phillips. They were caught near Coldwater and Phillips was lodged in jail on a charge of stealing wheat. Mrs. Lance returned to her home and left it a time or two.

Annual Meeting.

All members of the Edwards County Co-operative Association are hereby notified to meet at the regular place of meeting on Wednesday, July 27, 1904, to elect directors and to transact such other business as may come before the stockholders.

Big Picnic at Terry Grove.

On Thursday, July 28, there will be a grand picnic at Terry's grove near Fellsburg. There will be the usual sports, racing, ball playing, etc., during the day and a good old fashioned platform dance at night. The committee on arrangements promise the most entertaining day ever given at this grove where so many picnics have been held in the past. The politicians of the county are especially invited to be present but the plain every day voter need not stay away on this account as no candidate will be allowed to make a speech unless it is to advance the cause of the opposition. The day will be devoted to pleasure and the management will not allow any one to be disappointed. The simple announcement of a picnic at this grove is sufficient to bring out a crowd. Every one will be there. It's like the sewing societies when no woman stays away for fear she will be the one talked about.

Ice Cream Supper at Wendell.

An ice cream supper will be given at the Wendell church in Brown township on Tuesday, July 26, in the evening, by the Sunday school for the purpose of having a good sociable time and to raise money for the benefit of the church and Sunday school.

You need a straw hat now. Get one while they are cheap. Special sale at A. Hottewitz's.

Sunday School Convention.

On the third page of this issue of the Graphic will be found the program of the fourteenth annual convention of the Edwards County Sunday School Association which will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church in Lewis on August 2 and 3. Special attention is directed to the address of State Secretary J. H. Eagle on his Jerusalem trip, which will be delivered on Tuesday, August 2; and also to the Sunday school primary class to be taught Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock by Mrs. C. D. Wood, of Hutchinson. All primary teachers should take advantage of this opportunity to hear Mrs. Wood. Every school in the county should be represented at the convention.

A Popular Sport.

Tennis seems to be raging with unusual virulence in this community this year. Four or five courts have been arranged in this city and are kept warm every evening. This is one of the most interesting of sports and the young folks seem to have developed considerable skill in the game. They should arrange a series of contests to determine who are the best players and then challenge the players of some of our near-by towns.

Don't miss the special sale now on at A. Hottewitz's. The pick of the goods is going fast.

A Subscription Gaffer.

The following clipping from the Syracuse Journal will be of special and particular interest to Mr. Howard Barlow, an easterner sojourning in our midst, from the fact that detectives, hunting for this man Coats, recently undertook to make him believe that he answered to the description of the man they were after:

"A smooth guy sailing under the name of Coats dropped off a train Saturday morning and proceeded to work his graft as soon as the day was old enough to do business. Did he go out into the highways and ranch lands and seek the mild eyed rancher with illness on his chin to milk him of coin? No, not on your copperplate. He sauntered leisurely and with the air of one whose role in life transcends the chase after the humble dollar, into the office of a professional man who is not accounted 'easy,' and made his little spell, in words and figures to-wit: 'I represent the Curtis Publishing company and am soliciting subscriptions for the Ladies Home Journal and the Saturday Evening Post. The former has a circulation of 750,000 copies and we are trying to make it a million. In order to accomplish this within the next 90 days we are making this offer quietly to a few of the leading professional men in each town visited by our agents of giving two volumes of Mark Twain or Richard Harding Davis with each subscription for both of our periodicals. Of course you understand that we could not do this and come out on subscriptions, but we have our advertising to support us in it. We get $7,500 each issue for the last page of the Ladies Home Journal and for each 100,000 subscribers we add to our list we get $1000 additional. Hence, you see we are playing safe.' The temptation was too great and several of our sharpest and shrewdest townsmen ordered 'Innocents Abroad,' put up their plunks in amounts ranging from $1 to $4.50, only to discover two days later that they had been victimized and had invested in experience. The boys have concluded that 'Innocents Abroad' isn't as funny by a long shot as innocence at home and are 'roughing it' on 'Tom Sawyer' and 'Huck Finn' till they can corral that $25 reward offered by Edward Bok for the arrest of the flimflammer."
